Welcome Conklin Family

We are pleased to welcome Brian and Dawn Conklin, and their daughters Kaylee and Elysse. After studying “Economic Development for Developing Nations” at Eastern University, Brian and Dawn pursued their first assignment under the Mennonite Central Committee in Bangladesh. Since then, they have worked with the U.S. government in Bolivia, Ukraine, South Africa, Zimbabwe, Iraq, and Uganda to tackle religious, economic, and racial barriers. The Conklins will be in the United States until the end of January as they learn to speak French for their next assignment in Senegal, Africa.
